TeachME Professional Development

Team Teaching in Education

1. Team teaching is an educational model, in which educators share _____, and collaborate in the _____, _____, and _____ of a class.

A. Supervisors; review; implementing; evaluating
B. Students; planning; implementing; evaluating
C. Students; review; planning; implementing
D. None of the above

---

2. In a parallel teaching model, teachers split up the class, and they teach _____ content at _____ time.

A. different; the same
B. the same; a different
C. the same; the same
D. new; the same

---

3. In which teaching model would teachers conduct different learning activities related to the same content to different groups throughout the room?

A. Teaming Model
B. Parallel Teaching
C. Whole-Group
D. Station Teaching

---

4. Which option is NOT considered a benefit of team teaching?

A. More opportunity for teacher collaboration
B. Increased parental engagement
C. Increased equity
D. Increased student achievement

---

5. Mr. Jones uses the Smartboard for all of his lessons, while Mrs. Scott prefers pen and paper. Which team teaching drawback is this an example of?

A. Differing teaching styles
B. Personality clashes
C. Increased demands
D. Scheduling conflicts

---

6. Which is NOT an example of a strategy needed to implement team teaching?

A. Clearly defined roles
B. Joint Ownership
C. Communication
D. Equal content area expertise

---

7. Mr. Smith and Mrs. Brown are team teaching an ELA class for the first time this year. They are unsure how to teach the class with both teachers present, utilizing both areas of expertise. What type of support would help them?

A. Scheduling
B. Professional Development / Coaching
C. Increased class times
D. Complementary Teams

---

8. Which option describes a benefit of team teaching for students?

A. Lessons are more differentiated for student needs
B. Increased opportunities for positive relationships
C. ELLs can participate in the general education curriculum
D. All of the above

---

9. Which team teaching model is best if the lesson includes multiple points of view?

A. Teaming Model
B. Station Teaching
C. Parallel Teaching
D. Small Groups

---

10. When might station teaching be the best model to use?

A. Introducing new content
B. When all students are at the same level
C. Reteaching concepts
D. During standardized testing

---

Copyright © 2026 TeachME Professional Development

Visit us at https://www.teachmeceus.com